Other business such as requests for new programs, policies, etc, would be sent as a separate package to each committee member. More efficient and less costly electronic means of conducting UUCAP business were discussed and put under investigation. Other forthcoming certainties and possibilities regarding UUCAP business were discussed --, including the task of possibly adding "Pluralism in American Society" to the GE Program, the application of Transfer Module minimums and maximums, and the possibility of a calendar system change via the Provost's Spring 1996 memo to faculty.

All committee members were invited to attend the November 4, 1996, 11:15-11:45 a.m., 248B Rike Hall, meeting with the NCATE evaluation team as part of the CEHS accreditation review.
