Paul Laurence Dunbar Library
The Dunbar Library provides class and research support for students in all academic programs. The Libraries offer print and electronic resources and access to resources from all Ohio institutions through OhioLINK; personalized reference and computing assistance from professional staff in the Learning Commons and online through email and chat services; individual mentoring for high-tech class projects at the Student Technology Assistance Center; collections of original materials in Special Collections; and places for individual and group study including a coffee bar and a popular reading collection.

Fordham Health Sciences Library The Fordham Library collection supports the Boonshoft School of Medicine, the School of Professional Psychology, the College of Nursing and Health, and a number of graduate programs in the College of Science and Mathematics. Health Sciences librarians are available for personalized assistance to help students and other patrons find authoritative information. Fordham also provides access to the collections of six affiliated hospital libraries that serve Wright State’s clinical faculty, residents, and medical and nursing students in training. The Libraries are dedicated to helping students find what they need when they want it, and offer 24/7 access to online resources.

Wright State University Ervin J. Nutter Center
The university’s Ervin J. Nutter Center, a state-of-the-art facility and home to Wright State athletics and Dayton Bombers hockey, hosts over 20 national touring concerts and performances each year. With a seating capacity of 12,000, the Nutter Center is continually ranked nationally among venues of its size. The contemporary Berry Room holds 250 people for weddings, receptions, conferences, and seminars.
