I am delighted to have the opportunity to send you my greetings and share some positive news from the Raj Soin College of Business. Since arriving at Wright State in the late '80s, I have taken great professional satisfaction in the college's success at producing well-prepared, hard-working graduates who lead highly accomplished lives. I am excited by our innovative initiatives to improve our students' career preparation through professionalism training and increased exposure to practical business experiences.

We are dedicated to seeing this college continue to advance and succeed in the future of business education. As an advocate for the college and university, I hope that you read the news we send you, learn about the developments in the college, our impact in the community, share our stories and strengthen your connection so you can remain involved and shape the lives of future students.
