University Libraries

The University Libraries are dedicated to helping students succeed by offering a wide range of print and electronic resources specifically selected to meet our students' classroom and research needs. The Paul Laurence Dunbar Library and the Lake Campus Learning Center provide public computers (including wireless access), areas for creative group interaction, and areas for both quiet and group study. The Dunbar Library also features a Presentation Practice Room, Student Technology Assistance Center (STAC), the Café Wright, Special Collections and Archives, a "Brain Games" collection, and a popular reading collection. The Dunbar Library is open 84 hours a week with additional hours available during finals. The Libraries offer personal research assistance in-person, online, or by telephone. Online reference assistance is available 24/7.

Wright State University Ervin J. Nutter Center

The university's Ervin J. Nutter Center, a state-of-the-art facility and home to Wright State athletics, hosts over 20 national touring concerts and performances each year. With a seating capacity of 12,000, the Nutter Center is continually ranked nationally among venues of its size. The contemporary Berry Room holds 250 people for weddings, receptions, conferences, and seminars.
