A Symphony for Peace

REFLECTIONS ON THE SYRIAN CRISIS

3640 Colonel Glenn Hwy., Dayton, OH 45435-0001

Wright State University's College of Liberal Arts and CELIA invite you to A Symphony for Peace: Reflections on the Syrian Crisis. This free evening performance spotlights the plight of refugees from war-torn Syria through the combined talents of artists, musicians, and Middle Eastern Studies faculty. Led by Shelley Jagow, music professor and director of the Symphonic Band and Saxophone Quartet, A Symphony for Peace features a specially commissioned work by CELIA Distinguished Visiting Artist Malek Jandali, an acclaimed Syrian-American composer and pianist. Please join us for this unforgettable evening of music, visual arts, and the spoken word!
