April 18, 2018 - From the President's Desk

We—Wright State University—have turned 50 years old, and the Campus Scholarship and Innovation Campaign \(CSIC\) is celebrating its 40th anniversary. It took the strength and determination of the people who work at this great institution to make these things happen. It took the foresight of one individual, and the hard work of many, to understand the impact that an employee giving campaign would have on this community.

What do the following have in common: President's Administration, University Police, Human Resources, Communications, Marketing, Office of General Counsel, and University Audit and Consulting Services? We are labeled the Executive Offices for CSIC!

Each of you shares an identity with the Executive Offices. You know more than anyone that the Wright State University community looks to us for leadership. We should not be average; we should be leading.

In CSIC's 40th year, the need is greater than ever for our students. Many of you have been with Wright State through good times, and you have weathered bad times and come through stronger and more determined. Rest assured, Wright State University will flourish again.

There are more than 17,000 students depending on us to help them move to the next chapter in their lives. For our students to succeed, we must be prepared to help them in any way possible. As an integral part of the Executive Offices, the Wright State University community is looking to us for CSIC leadership.

I am asking you to participate in the Campus Scholarship and Innovation Campaign if you have not already. Get involved! Any dollar amount will benefit our students. Let our students know that they matter to the Executive Offices, that they are important to you, and that you want them to succeed!

Please make your donation today to the Campus Scholarship and Innovation Campaign.

Warmest regards,

Cheryl B. Schrader, Ph.D.
President
