Fred Olt,
Olt Brewing Company,
Dayton, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

Press dispatches indicate imminent return of legalized beer. A local news item carries the information that your company is anticipating such legislation, and is making plans to place such product upon the market.

Believing that increased activity in this connection will necessitate an augmented force, I ask that you consider my application based upon the following qualifications:

I am the present Commander of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War and a Government recognized Rehabilitation Officer, authorized to do service work among Veterans. I am 37 years of age and married.

My experience has prepared me for practically every kind of office and detail work. I am an accurate stenographer and able to compose my own letters. I recently passed the Civil Service examination for Senior Stenographer for the Government but no appointments will apparently be made for many years to come.

I have been employed by three Dayton firms as correspondent: Reynolds and Reynolds, National Recording Pump Company and Lewis Motor Mart. I can secure recommendations from each of these firms. Believing that such work speaks for itself, I would be pleased to submit copies of letters written by me on miscellaneous subjects in the course of business.

Salary is not important—I receive $50.00 a month from the Government and am willing to demonstrate my ability. I feel that you would want to pay me what my services were worth to you in any capacity in which an opening might exist.

Yours respectfully,

[Signature]
