Paul Laurence Dunbar Library

The university library contains over 520,000 bound volumes, 1,000,000 microforms, and 4,100 periodical subscriptions. The library also houses a national map depository with more than 57,000 geological and topographical maps from across the United States. The library's Department of Archives and Special Collections houses one of the world's most complete repositories of original documents, memorabilia, and personal photographs from the Wright brothers.

Fordham Health Sciences Library

The Fordham Health Sciences Library, located in the Medical Sciences Building, supports the health sciences educational and research needs of the students and faculty at Wright State University. The collections number nearly 106,000 volumes and 1,400 current serial subscriptions.

Wright State University Ervin J. Nutter Center

The university's Ervin J. Nutter Center, completed in 1990, provides seating for up to 13,000 spectators for events ranging from basketball games and entertainment to conferences and commencements. Fourteen Wright State athletic teams compete in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I, and the university regularly hosts nationally known speakers, performers, and exhibitions.

Fritz and Dolores Russ Engineering Center

The new Fritz and Dolores Russ Engineering Center stands as a centerpiece of engineering and computer science education and research for the region. The 173,110-square-foot facility has 63 state-of-the-art laboratories, 10 classrooms, and numerous lecture halls, which are packed with cutting-edge classroom and research equipment.
