Thus two sides of nature impose duties and rights your duties are my rights and vice versa. These are superposed on the moral nature by the God and are universal as the laws of light In working out their own solution these principles have evolved Democracy, in every part of progress, faltering, limping, halting, staggering at last on one foot falling down and picking it self up to try again - but never surrendering to the old absolute monarchy.

His movement is toward a larger freedom and includes a larger life, in harmony with the instincts of the human soul. His freedom regnant in our half the people has produced the greatest mankind of history. The
