LUFBERY, WITH ENGINE STOPPED, ELUDES FOUR HOSTILE AIRPLANES

Paris, Jan. 2.—Lieutenant Raoul Lufberry of Wallingford, Conn., of the Lafayette escadrille, had a narrow escape in a fight with four German battle machines last Saturday. The gasoline pipes on his airplane were punctured during the engagement, and although he had the advantage of a higher altitude, his machine became almost helpless through the stoppage of his motor.

Lieutenant Lufberry seemed virtually at the mercy of the Germans, but by clever manoeuvring with one of the Germans following him down almost to earth and firing continuously, he managed to escape unhurt. His machine was found to have eleven bullet holes in it.
