"A Note to the Frozen Chosen"

Why must we do this to them day in and day out?
Continually, unendingly, pedagogically.

Open their heads on the top and pour it in.
Unimaginatively, un-cooperatively, un-inclusively.

Mechanically we drone on in the same way
Day after day. Machine. Die cast. Rigid.

Clinging to the past, resolute, despite our `enlightenment'
Sure that because we have done things, they are correct

It is important to ask why
Why don't we?
