August 22, 2018 - Welcome Back

Welcome to the Wright State University family!

You are about to take a significant step in your life. Some of you are attending college for the first time. Others may be returning to college after an extended break or joining us for a new opportunity. Some are seeking an advanced degree.

Regardless of how you arrived at Wright State, I want you to know we are excited for you as you begin this new journey. Our university will do its best to help you reach your goals.

I hope you will take advantage of the opportunities presented to you during your time at Wright State. Get involved in student life, join an organization, find an exciting internship, pursue new experiences, make a difference through community service opportunities. And if you ever need assistance, we offer a range of excellent services for students, including comprehensive tutoring and academic support; compassionate health, counseling, and wellness services; and important career counseling.

Be open to the possibilities this year holds and good things can happen.

I wish you all the best during your time at Wright State University.

We can't wait for you to arrive. See you soon!

Warmest regards,

Cheryl B. Schrader
President
