MARCH 2021

A message from Dean Thomas Traynor

As we work towards the end of the COVID-19 pandemic I am happy to share that Wright State is planning the first in-person commencement ceremonies since December 2019! Master's degree recipients from the Raj Soin College of Business are scheduled to participate in an evening commencement ceremony on Friday, April 30, and our Bachelor's degree recipients will participate in the Saturday morning commencement ceremony on May 1. I look forward to celebrating our graduates' achievements with them at the Nutter Center this spring.

As always, please scroll down to read about a few of the many great achievements of our college's community.

Fulbright scholar and M.B.A. student Asil Khalil Far pursues her degree from Palestine

Participating in Wright State business classes from halfway around the world in the middle of the night is taken in stride by M.B.A. student and Fulbright scholar Asil Khalil Far.

Because of the time difference, Far took part in some mandatory live virtual class discussion sessions from 2 to 3 a.m. from her home in Palestine.
