May 30, 1913.

Mrs. M. McClellan Brown,
818 Hutchins Ave.,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dear Mrs. Brown:-

I am mortified beyond anything to find that your letter with the date of May 2nd has been lying on my desk in one of my baskets and is not marked answered. Miss Hauser is very apt to answer my letters for me if I am not in the office. I have been out a great deal of late. But she laid this on my desk with a note that she could not answer it and I was to attend to it. It is therefore no ones fault but my own and I do hope that you will not think I have been neglectful in this matter. I have been neglectful but I have not been intentionally so.

I am afraid it is too late now for you to use my name on the program for another year, but if it is not I will be very glad to be with the Harriet Taylor Upton Club on that 9th of October and would not charge anything of course for any such services. I would hope however that you would be able to pay my expenses. There is talk of a Conference in Cincinnati or that vicinity in October and it might be that we could work in the dates together. I hope so because that would be a saving to you as well as to the

#2. M. McC. B.

Association. We could share the expenses possibly. Anyway
I shall be glad to come ^{my answer} and if ~~it~~ is too late of course that is my misfortune.

Always cordially yours,

Harriet Taylor Upton
