Warren, Ohio. Oct. 11, 1913.

Mrs. M. Mc. Clellen Brown,
818 Hutchins Ave.,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dear Mrs. Brown:-

I had a perfectly horrible trip home, but I'll not trouble you about that. I started at 8 and got home at 10 and had a common car most of the way with no dining ^{car} ~~car~~.

I have been thinking more about our conversation about the expenses and on making up my expense account I found it amounted to $23.55. I feel as you do that the club ought to bear part of these expenses so I will make you this proposition. You can send me half of the $23.55 or you can pledge $25.00 at the State Convention. Of course you will want to pledge something at the State Convention any way and I think it will amount to the same thing. If we had'n't been going to have the convention in Cincinnati I should have felt that the club ought to pay all expenses but as I did kill two birds with one stone I think this is all right.

Cordially yours,

Harriet Taylor Upton
