April 25, 1914.

Dear Suffragist:

With all attention on the Mexican war news the suffrage demonstrations are likely to fall flat. In the face of the emergency we have decided to connect our big parade issue of May 2d with the other burning question before the country. Everybody on the streets at the demonstrations will want to read the Women's Point of View on War.

This connection with the demonstrations is the opportunity of the hour! We know this paper will sell. It will make your demonstration effective. We are therefore sending you <sup>3</sup> Woman's Journals and ~~newsy~~ bags; also large ~~posters~~. Paste these on boards and use them for advertising.

Sell the paper for 5¢. Pay us 2¢ per copy. Do not return any papers. Wire if you need more. They will sell! Let us show what we can do.

Yours for a great day,

Agnes E. Ryan
