REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

Status Report of the School of Medicine and the Joint Universities Advisory Committee

President Kegerreis made the following report on the status of the School of Medicine:

Faculty recruitment has continued as the primary focus for the dean's activities; the recruitment of departmental chairmen and program directors has received the primary emphasis. All of the preclinical program directors have been identified:

Dr. H. Ira Fritz, Program Director, Biological Chemistry

Dr. Samuel Kolmen, Program Director, Physiology

Dr. Robert Reece, Program Director, Medicine in Society

Dr. Robert Wheat, Program Director, Microbiology

Dr. Antonio Zappala, Program Director, Anatomy

Several of the very important clinical chairmanships have also been filled:

Dr. James Funkhouser, Chairman, Pathology

Dr. Emanuel Kauder, Chairman, Pediatrics

Dr. John Lindower, Chairman, Pharmacology

Dr. Douglas Longenecker, Chairman, Family Practice

Dr. Nicholas Thompson, Chairman, Obstetrics and Gynecology

As announced earlier, Dr. J. Robert Suriano has accepted the position of Associate Dean, Student Affairs/Admissions. With these appointments, active recruitment of basic science and clinical faculty is being undertaken on an accelerated scale.

Of primary importance is the designation of chairmen in surgery, medicine, and psychiatry. Filling these three positions is the primary recruitment goal during the next three months.

There have also been several additions to the staff. Of particular note is the appointment of Mr. Frederic Stewart as Coordinator of Public Information and Communications and Mr. Allen Pope as Coordinator of Special Projects. Efforts are continuing to identify a Coordinator of Grants and Contracts as well as an individual to assume responsibility for general development efforts for the School of Medicine. Several individuals have been interviewed as Director of Animal Resources and we hope to be able to also fill this position within the next month.

We are pleased to announce that negotiations have been successfully concluded with Miami University to appoint three faculty members to the School of Medicine.

With the designation of a critical mass of faculty members, chairmen, and program directors, regular meetings are being held to undertake detailed planning and development of the School of Medicine including executive committee, faculty and staff meetings. A one-day curriculum retreat is scheduled for April 26th, at which time further formal planning and organization of the medical education program will be undertaken.

Detailed planning of the medical education building has continued. Meetings have also been held with representatives of the local Veterans Administration Center and the staff of the Veterans Administration central office to address educational facilities for use in the medical education program at the Dayton Veterans Administration Center. Temporary space has been obtained at the Dayton Veterans Administration Center to house cadavers as well as equipment being purchased for the educational program.

Even with the doubling of space at the Kettering Center to support the medical education program, inadequate space continues to be a major problem. There exists a critical need for significant additional space to house faculty, provide research facilities, and allow storage for the additional equipment acquisitions. Continuing efforts are being made to resolve these problems.

The School of Medicine has received funds from the State of Ohio to assist in the development of the Family Practice program. An application has been submitted to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare for a grant to assist in the recruitment of students from underserved areas, and during the next several months, several similar applications will be submitted.

An application is also being prepared for submission to the D.H.E.W. for a health manpower facilities construction grant of $2.5 million to assist in the construction program of the Medical Sciences/Health Sciences Library complex.

Within the next few weeks, active development of the SOHMET (Subregional Organization for Health Manpower Education and Training) will also be initiated.

President Kegerreis then referred to Dean Beljan, who made a brief report on the activities of the Joint Universities Advisory Committee.

Art Education

Basic Information:

- A. The primary task of Art Education lies in the preparation of teachers and human services personnel for public school art programs, agency and clinic work, and for other related job fields.
 The Art Education program includes work in philosophy and methodology; in craft areas applicable to the public and private school setting; in practicum, lab, and clinic experiences; and in courses offered at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

- B. The following data were reported for the fall quarter, 1974-5:
1. Art Education major students enrolled were:
Full-time: 54; Part-time: 29; Total: 83
 2. Elementary Education major students with a concentration in Art Education:
Full-time: 5; Part-time: 2; Total: 7
 3. Graduate students in Art Education enrolled for the fall:
Full-time: 8; Part-time: 30; Total: 38
There are also 32 graduate students who are not enrolled during this particular quarter but will continue work in the winter, spring, and summer quarters. There are currently a total of 70 graduate students in Art Education.
- C. All Elementary Education students are required to complete 6 quarter hours of Art Education courses (AED 231 and AED 331). The numbers of students taking these courses within a year's time are listed below:
1. Winter '74 to winter '75: 271 Elementary Education students enrolled in Art Education 231
 2. Winter '74 to winter '75: 269 Elementary Education students enrolled in Art Education 331
- The Art Education faculty teaches these "service" courses for the Elementary Education major. In addition, other courses (such as AED 223) are designated as "recommended electives" for the Elementary Education major. For the Elementary Education major who desires additional coursework in Art Education, a concentration of 33 quarter hours was designed specifically to meet this need.

New Program of Study:

- A. The Art, Art Education, and Special Education student may elect a course in "Art Education for the Special Student" at the undergraduate or graduate level, and the graduate student may elect a concentration in Art Therapy which may be built into his master's work.
- B. Writing is now underway for a master's degree in Art Therapy. This specialized field of study is an outgrowth of the summer program (in existence for the past four years) in Art Therapy with handicapped children and adults. This anticipated program is planned to develop a new source of students, and we have already received inquiries regarding this program and procedures for admittance to W.S.U., such as:
 1. Seven colleges and universities within Ohio are now referring students who are interested in Art Therapy to W.S.U.
 2. Fourteen universities from outside of Ohio (from nine states and Canada) have requested information.
 3. Forty individuals outside of Ohio have requested information about W.S.U. as a result of their interest in this specialized program; these requests have come from individuals in seventeen different states.

4. The National Art Education Association headquarters is forwarding all requests for information on Art Therapy to W.S.U. Art Education area.

Creative Arts Center Facilities:

- A. For Art Education, the new building is functional, aesthetically pleasing, and meets specific needs of our program. In addition to on-campus work, we go into the community for work in public schools; teachers and students in schools also come to campus. The Creative Arts Center is attractive to these visitors and they are impressed with the classrooms, the exhibition spaces, and the working areas.
- B. In the Saturday Clinic, handicapped students and their parents come to the Art Education rooms. These students are able to move around well, and they work in large, bright, and open rooms. The parents have conferences in specially designated rooms, and are able to visit current exhibits while waiting for the child's therapy session to end.
- C. During the dedication festivities in the building, over 800 persons attended the Art Education functions (dinner, exhibits, seminars, and conferences) and the responses to these activities and the "atmosphere" of the new building were extremely positive. Art Education faculties from Miami University, the University of Cincinnati, Ohio State University, Ohio University, the University of Dayton, Sinclair Community College, the State University of New York at Buffalo, and art supervisors and directors from Dayton, Columbus, Cincinnati, and other art education and education personnel all expressed views that the facilities and exhibits and program were most impressive.
