Martha McClelland Brown,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dear Mrs. Brown,

Can you go to Okeana Ohio to speak at a Farmers' Institute?

In reply to my request for time on the program, they have consented to allow us 20 minutes.
Their program is already printed but you can take any session except the first one and the last one. Please write to Mr. J. A. ⁹Woshorne, Okeana, Ohio telling him what time you will be there.

In case you cannot fill this engagement, telegraph me, for time is so short.

Now that it looks almost certain that we will have our question submitted, everybody who believes in suffrage must lay aside other things and give themselves to this work.

With the election of Bigelow, with a suffragist
as secretary of the Convention, with a Woman Suffrage Committee first appointed and with a splendid man for chairman, I feel as if our battle was nearly won.

Cordially yours,

Harriet Taylor Upton,
-J.B.
