"The Union Professor"

Rubin Battino

There once was a union professor, who never was afraid,
Of goons and ginks and administration finks and associate deans who made the raid.

He went to the union hall when a meeting, it was called,
He'd show his card to the dean's red guard and this is what he'd say. . .

Chorus: Oh, you can't scare me, I'm sticking to the union,
I'm sticking to the union, I'm sticking to the union.
Oh, you can't scare me, I'm sticking to the union,
I'm sticking to the union till the day I die.

This union professor was wise to the tricks of administration spies.
He couldn't be fooled by administration stools, he'd always organize the guys.

He always got his way when he struck for higher pay, He'd show his picket in the administration thicket, and this is what he'd say. . . (chorus)

You gals who want to be free, just take a tip from me.
Get you a man who's a union man and join the ladies' auxiliary.
Married life ain't hard when you've got a union card.
And a union man is a happy man when he's got a union wife . . .
(chorus)
