My Daddy Was a Professor

1. My ~~dad~~ daddy was a professor and I'm a professor's son,
I'm sticking with the union till every battle's won.
2. They say at Wright State U. there are no neutrals there,
You'll either be a union man or scab and ~~be a scab~~ ^{covet a chair}.
3. Oh, professors please tell me, please tell me how you stand it?
Will you be a lousy ~~scab~~ scab or will you be a man?
4. Let's all join the union, let's work to keep it strong,
Let's all picket together and ~~join~~ ^{raise} our voice in song.
- * 5. My daddy was a dean and I'm a dean's son,
And I'll stick with the administration till every battle's won.
- * 6. Don't join the union, it's not professional,
Just do your teaching, that's real professional.
- * 7. Let the deans administrate, let them do their work.
Don't meddle in their business, don't you be a jerk.
8. Come all you good ^{professors} ~~teachers~~, good news to you I'll tell,
About how that teachers' union has come here to dwell.
9. Listen to me students, listen to my plea,
Support the teachers union for ^{all} the deans to see.
10. I finked for the ~~un~~ deans, but now I see the light,
I've joined the teachers' union and will help them with their fight.
- * 11. Don't join the union, don't join those reds and pinks,
They're not ^{real} Americans ~~as~~ ^{and that's what} HVA C thinks.

Chorus: Which side are you on? which side are you on?
Which side are you on, brother? which side are you on?
