

Wright State University

CORE Scholar

Wright State University Alternative Newspaper
Collection

University Archives

12-15-1967

My Daddy Was a Professor

Rubin Battino

Wright State University - Main Campus, rubin.battino@wright.edu

Wright State University Faculty

Follow this and additional works at: https://corescholar.libraries.wright.edu/alternative_newspapers

Part of the History Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Repository Citation

Battino , R., & Wright State University Faculty (1967). My Daddy Was a Professor. : University Archives; Wright State University.

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at CORE Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Wright State University Alternative Newspaper Collection by an authorized administrator of CORE Scholar. For more information, please contact library-corescholar@wright.edu.

*group #1

group #2

"My Daddy Was a Professor"

Rubin Battino

- (6) *My daddy was a professor, and I'm a professor's son,
I'm sticking with the union till every battle's won.
- Chorus: Which side are you on? Which side are you on?
 Which side are you on, brother? Which side are you on?
- (5) *They say at Wright State U. there are no neutrals there,
You'll either be a union man or scab and covet a chair.
- (4) *Oh, professors please tell me, please tell me how you stand it?
Will you be a lousy scab or will you be a man?
- (7) *Let's all join the union, let's work to keep it strong,
Let's all picket together and raise ou voice in song.
- (8)  My daddy was a dean, and I'm a dean's son,
And I'll stick with the administration till every battle's won.
- (9)  Don't join the union, it's not professional.
Just do your teaching, that's real professional.
- (10)  Let the deans administrate, let them do their work.
Don't meddle in their business, don't you be a jerk.
- (1) *Come all you good professors, good news to you I'll tell,
About how that teachers union has come here to dwell.
- (2) *Listen to me students, listen to my plea,
Support the teachers union for all the deans to see.
- (3) *I finked for the deans, but now I see the light:
I've joined the teachers union and will help them with their fight.
- (11)  Don't join the union, don't join those reds and pinks,
They're not real Americans, and that's what HUAC thinks.