Possible song ideas:

Female Athletic Lobbying Song. Song and Maple Leaf Rag Dance.
Mod clothes and sneakers.

To the tune of Tom Lehrer's "Vatican Rag"

First we'll put our sneakers on,
Then we'll really trounce upon

The girls from UD and Wilberforce,
They'll be filled with such remorse:

When they see our strategy
The fans will cheer with joyous glee.

We've got talent
You can bet upon it

Playing volleyball.

Dance, then repeat song???

Possible song ideas:

COMMITTEE SONG (to the tune of Bob Dylan's "Blowin' in the Wind")
Guitar

How many times can we be called upon
To serve on another committee?
Our research is failing, our families are faint,
Our lectures? Well they ain't.

Oh yes, but how many times can a man turn his back on ath-a-letic support?

The answer my colleague--
They wanta play football in the field.
To this need we'll just have to yield.

More verses?

BUILDINGS SONG (to the tune of Tom Lehrer's "First They Got the Bomb")
Piano

First Allyn got a building but that's okay
He raised the money anyway.

Then Oelman got a building, but what the heck
He raised another million checks.

Who's next? Who's next?

Golding's gonna get one too
Just you wait for da da de doo

Who's next? Who's next?

Millett was a lucky guy,
He's got some things that money can't buy.

Fawcett got a building named Spigot Hall--
Well, you just can't win 'em all.

Who's next? Who's next?

ME! (One man holds up large sign with Arthur Beerman, Mayor Hall, or some such local figure printed on it)

IT'S A JOY TO SERVE ON A COMMITTEE (to tune of "Long Way to Tipperary"?)
