September 1, 2017 - From the President's Desk

Dear Campus Community,

Please join me on Wednesday, September 13, for Wright State University's Convocation and Awards Ceremony.

This year, the university will hold one event at which our community will recognize the recipients of both the President's Awards for Excellence and the Faculty Awards for Excellence.

Classified and unclassified staff will be honored for exemplary performance in the areas of human relations, leadership, service, and innovation. The outstanding campus unit and a group of units that collaborate on a significant initiative will also be recognized.

We will honor select faculty members as well for their excellent work in the areas of teaching, research, community engagement, professional service, and early career achievement.

During the event, I will also provide my first State of the University Address.

The University Convocation and Awards Ceremony begins at 3 p.m. in the Apollo Room of the Student Union. It will include a dessert reception. I do hope to see you there!

Warmest regards,

Cheryl B. Schrader, Ph.D.
President
