September 13, 2017 - From the President's Desk

Dear Campus Community,

Please join me today for Wright State University's Convocation and Awards Ceremony. The event begins at 3 p.m. in the Apollo Room of the Student Union.

The university will recognize the recipients of the President's Awards for Excellence and the Faculty Awards for Excellence. I will also provide my first State of the University Address.

Classified and unclassified staff will be honored for exemplary performance in the areas of human relations, leadership, service, and innovation. The outstanding campus unit and a group of units that collaborate on a significant initiative will also be recognized.

We will honor select faculty members as well for their excellent work in the areas of teaching, research, community engagement, professional service, and early career achievement.

The event will be streamed live at wright.edu/streaming.

Warmest regards,

Cheryl B. Schrader, Ph.D.
President
