Life does not treat everyone same
Learn to live with pride not with shame
You may be different than others in your constitution
Understand it, accept it and quit frustration
Do not curse God for being unkind
Look within yourself and you may find
A hidden gift, an unknown talent
Which is only bestowed on the gallant
Who would live as a model and show to the world
That he is different and not disabled
Ability lies not in physique but in our head
To decide the path in life we tread
Those who mock or show pity; are the ones sans ability
To respect people's differences and dignity
We are all alike, creations of one God
Disrespect to anyone is disrespect to Lord.
