Chair's Message

We welcome Laura Peterson, M.D., to the Department !

Dr. Peterson completed Medical School at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and General Surgery Residency as well as a Masters in Medical Science at Ohio State University. She then went on to complete her fellowship in Vascular Surgery at Wake Forest University in North Carolina. She has a special interest in limb salvage and venous disease. Her research focus is on educational research and clinically oriented research on surgical outcomes. She is particularly interested in surgical curriculum design and development. In her spare time Dr. Peterson enjoys the arts and being outdoors.

Welcome also to Joon Shim, M.D., to the Department of Surgery!

Dr. Shim is a fellowship-trained minimally invasive and bariatric surgeon. She specializes in general surgery, bariatric surgery, minimally invasive surgery, robotic surgery, reflux, hiatal hernia and endoscopy. She earned both her medical degree as well as her master's degree in public health from George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences. She completed her residency in general surgery at the University of Massachusetts and a fellowship in minimally invasive surgery and bariatric surgery at Brown University. She served as an active duty Army surgeon for four years and completed two tours as a combat trauma surgeon for Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan. She was awarded the Army's Meritorious Service Medal. Dr. Shim thoroughly enjoys hiking, reading, and the arts, specifically poetry.

Department of Surgery CME Event

The Surgical Oncology Division hosted a CME event, "The Surgeon's Role in Comprehensive Cancer Care," at Piqua Country Club on September 29, targeting our northern markets, such as Troy, Piqua, Tipp City, and other hospitals in Shelby County. The doctors discussed HIPEC, new advances in breast surgery, robotic surgery, and pancreatic cancer surgery. The event was well received with a request for more CME events on a regular basis.

Trauma Survivors' Celebration

This annual event was held at Magnolia Place at Miami Valley Hospital on September 22.

Mark Shaker, MVH president, remarked, "These six honorees inspired us by their remarkable stories of courage, hope, faith, and determination. They are the reason we host this celebration. We thank them for letting us share their stories."

The 2016 honorees are (L-R) Nathan Mowen, Ron Wynne, John Samples, Preston Alexander, Devin Moore, and Sasha Povlanko.

Wellness Corner

The NEJM has a resident page that has a resident blog as well as information addressing issues for residents regarding debt management, starting residency and burnout, and videos of recent articles. <https://resident360.nejm.org/pages/home>

If you have any information you would like to share with the other members of the department, or professional or special events happening in your life, please e-mail Kathleen at Kathleen. Wallace@wrightstatephysicians.org by the 15th of the month. The Faculty and Staff Update will be e-mailed the first of the month.

Faculty

Dr. John Bini was invited to discuss the paper "'No Zone' Approach in Penetrating Neck Trauma Reduces Unnecessary Computed Tomography Angiography and Negative Explorations" during the AAST and Clinical Congress of Acute Care Surgery Annual Meeting, held September 13-17 in Waikoloa, Hawaii.

Residents

R4's Anthony Chan, M.D., and Nathan Droz, M.D., presented cases for the Vascular Visiting Professor, Dr. Andres Schanzer, on September 14 at the WSU Surgery Grand Rounds.

The first DOS Wellness event was held on August 26 at Delco Park. Residents, faculty, and family enjoyed a cookout and a very competitive kickball game.

The next Resident Wellness event is on October 28, 4-7 p.m., at Tom's Maze "Haunted House Adventure." There will be a private campfire, s'mores, and a corn maze! See the Google Calendar link below for location details and to add it to your calendar.

Students

Rural Health Rotation Gets Underway

Third-year medical students in the surgery clerkship who have an interest in learning about and working in a rural community now have the opportunity to spend part of their eight-week surgical rotation in the Wright State University Lake Campus as part of the Wright Rural Health Initiative (WRHI). The WRHI is an initiative to bring more health care professionals to rural communities. "It has been long recognized that when students have the opportunity to live and work in rural communities during their professional training, they are more likely to select rural communities for professional practice," said Dr. Robert P. Gill, physician advisor for Grand Lake Health System.

Dr. K. Lance Bryant and Bryan Grove, M.D. candidate, class of 2018.

Under the supervision of new clinical preceptors K. Lance Bryant, D.O., and Robert D. Keighley, D.O., of St. Marys Surgical Associates, students have the opportunity to observe and assist in surgical patient care at Mercer County Community Health Hospital in Coldwater, Ohio, and Joint Township District Memorial Hospital in St. Marys, Ohio.

"The physicians treat you more like a first-year intern, than a medical student," said Bryan Grove, MS3, the first student to rotate in the WRHI in surgery. "I was able to do a lot, and they really focused on my learning.

I would definitely recommend the Rural Health rotation to other students," he said.

Third-year student Felipe Ayala had a similar experience. "Dr. Bryant and Dr. Keighley were eager to teach students. They actively challenged my critical thinking skills so that I can appreciate the importance of ethical and evidence-based clinical medicine," he said.

Ayala also said he was given the privilege of being the first assist in many of the cases. "Even though I had little to no experience in the surgical field, they guided me every step of the way," he said. "They wanted to instill confidence in me so that I would not second guess myself. Surgery involves being able to think critically and trusting in your ability to get through the procedure. Confidence is a crucial part of surgical medicine, as patients trust you with this privilege. My experience in rural health was a fruitful one. I was able to truly appreciate surgery and the hard work that goes into becoming a surgeon."

Surgery Club Gearing Up for 2016-17

Welcome to the new 2016-17 Surgery Club Board Members:

Brett Fields, Co-President

Chris McMellen, Co-President

Ashley Kaminski, Secretary

Steve Platko, Treasurer

Dr. Peterson instructs students on gowning and gloving technique.

The board has been busy planning Surgery Club events for about 50 members. On August 18, Dr. William Rundell spoke before a packed room on "Why I Went into Surgery." The board then hosted a gowning/gloving and surgical hand scrubbing session for almost 30 students. A big thank you goes out to Dr. William Rundell, Dr. Garietta Falls, Dr. Laura Peterson, and second-year resident Dr. Jennifer Lynde for assisting the students with this program. The club's next event is a suture lab scheduled for October 13.
