The NEJM has a resident page that has a resident blog as well as information addressing issues for residents regarding debt management, starting residency and burnout, and videos of recent articles. resident360.nejm.org/pages/home

If you have any information you would like to share with the other members of the department, or professional or special events happening in your life, please e-mail Kathleen at Kathleen.Wallace@wrightstatephysicians.org by the 15th of the month. The Faculty and Staff Update will be e-mailed the first of the month.

Chair's Message

Best wishes for the New Year! I will be traveling to Southeast Asia for two weeks—January 25 to February 8. Dr. Ekeh will be acting as vice chair for the Department of Surgery and will be available to assist with any issues or concerns. I plan to have a “travel lunch” when I return to share pictures of Vietnam and Cambodia.

Recruitment

We are recruiting for two acute care surgeons, one position at the assistant professor level and one at the associate professor level. The associate professor will be the director of the Critical Care Fellowship and the assistant director of Trauma.

Faculty

Congratulations to Dr. Linda Barney, who will be the new coordinator for the National Surgical Quality Improvement Program.

Dr. Mbagwa Walusimbi has been appointed interim director of the surgical Critical Care Fellowship.

Congratulations to Dr. Alyssa Gans, the new associate program director for Trauma and the interim surgical director of the Intensive Care Unit.

Dr. Minia Hellan was featured in a news release in November for pancreatic cancer awareness month: wrightstatephysicians.org/whatsnew/pancreatic-awareness.html

Dr. Joon Shim and Dr. Laura Peterson were featured in the December/January issue of the Dayton Magazine: issuu.com/cincyflip/docs/dayton_1216 (pages 58 and 60)

Education

The Center for Global Health and Innovation at Stanford University School of Medicine will host a one-and-a-half-day Continuing Medical Education (CME) course on humanitarian surgery skills, February 25–26, 2017. The deadline for registration is January 30.
