Columbus O
Nov. 18th 1863.

Mother,

Inclosed find transportation for those men, if they do not call for it send it down to them.

This morning I stiped off the train a moment to see a gentleman at af London, and while talking to him the train left me and I had to wait until this afternoon.
Aunt had to go on alone, I was very sorry on her account. If I do not see her tell her when you write about it and that I am very sorry. I do not expect to get off before next week. If I can get away I shall come down Friday, but don't look for me. They may not let me off. All the men they will find me at the

As ever
