

[Description: Printed announcement of a concert at the Masonic Hall in Newport, Rhode Island, given by Paul Laurence Dunbar on August, 16, 1898.]

The Dunbar Concert in Newport, Tuesday Evening, Aug. 16, '98 at Masonic Hall, Cor. School & Church Sts.

Paul Laurence Dunbar the Poet, Author and Elocutionist, and one of America's Greatest Entertainers, will give Newport the Grandest, the Best, and the Most Unique Entertainment of the Season. Some of Newport's most cultured talent, from both races, will assist Mr. Dunbar with the choicest of Vocal and Instrumental Music.

The entire programme to be published later.

"Once in a life time" does the opportunity come to see and hear such a world renowned character as Mr. Dunbar. Don't miss this chance.

Given under the auspices of the Union Congregational Church.

General Admission, 50 Cents. Reserve Seats, 75 Cents.

Reserve seats on sale on and after August 10 at Downing's Drug Store, Broadway, Roger's Music Store, Thames Street. Stratford's Drug Store, Bellevue Avenue, Cosmopolitan Library, Bellevue Avenue. Allen's Restaurant and Smith's Restaurant, Thames Street.

Persons outside of Newport who desire to arrange for Reserve Seats should address Bryan Gunner, 12 White Street, Newport, R.I.

Doors open at 7:30. Exercises begin at 8:00.

Ward, Printer, 34 Clarke St., Newport, R.I.