

Brendyn Melugin Video Log

00:00	Introduction
00:20	Born 8 Oct 1992 in Taylorville, KY
00:50	Parents and occupation
02:50	Joined military because of family
04:00	Joined the Army
04:09	Basic training at fort liner wood
05:48	Experience of basic training is "old Army"
07:02	Basic training compared to ROTC
07:50	Drill instructors that stuck with the Vet
09:07	What it was like training as a military police officer
10:09	Time in air born school/ injured on plane due to parachute wrapping around arm
12:20	Did receive air born wings
13:06	Special military training
13:50	Adapting to military life was easy and quick
15:14	Elaborates on career during enlistment, after injury
16:20	Experience before injury carried over to experiences after injury
17:24	Daily life of work
19:20	How squadron was ran
20:58	Enjoyed going out in the field more than any thing
22:30	Cases that stuck with vet as military police
24:09	Chooses not to elaborate on stories
24:52	Ate at the DFAC
24:48	Found positive and negative inspirations within leadership
31:10	Bitter sweet transition out of the military
33:36	Moved to Georgia with girlfriend right after military
34:51	Parents feelings on moving somewhere other than home
35:48	Good and bad experiences with army and civilian life and civilian community
37:40	Adjusting to civilian life is excellent but was sad about leaving military friends
38:55	Stays in contact with military friends
40:07	Started school after military and active in school groups
41:08	Involved in SVA and Atlanta blue
41:58	Life lessons learned from military
43:15	How military has impacted views on war
45:54	Message to others
47:10	Final remarks