

Toronto, Saturday evening

Dearest;

Here we are on our way to “northern Canada”! The Canbys are with us and all our arrangements are working out exactly as planned.

I find we can get mail and I am enclosing address. I’ll be sure to get out a letter or two.

Goodbye, once more dear. I hope it isn’t any hotter in K.C. than here. I think longingly of our cool porch this hot night. Wish we were both on it and alone for a little while! Goodbye. Goodbye.
