

Vance Saunders Video Log

00:00 Introduction
00:29 Biographical & Family
03:13 Why the Army, the Families thoughts
06:58 Before going to Boot Camp
08:00 Boot Camp Adventures
11:47 Remembering Drill Sergeants
13:28 Choosing the Job and Training – EOD Specialist
15:53 Adapting to Military Life
17:30 Family Support with the Military
18:21 1st Duty Station – Valley Forge General Hospital
19:41 Outstanding Memories from Duties
22:04 2nd Duty Station 8th Army Division Korea
22:22 Prepared for Duty / Work Details
23:41 Dangerous Situations, Safety First
27:00 Most Dangerous part of EOD job
28:30 Comparing then to now
29:18 Liberties while in Korea, seeing Bob Hope
31:34 Keeping in contact with family and friends while overseas
32:20 Divorce
33:03 Early ETS from Korea
34:05 The future: Getting an Education Using the GI Bill
36:35 Wright State University, Accounting Major
37:47 EOD Skills in the Civilian World
39:45 The transition from Military to Student
41:37 3 Months to Relax, find myself, be free
42:35 Being around other Veterans
44:30 Job after Military and School, Moving to Texas 40 years
45:34 Keeping in contact with Military Pals
47:38 Overall Outlook of the Military Experience
50:10 Military in General, personal views
52:32 Final Remarks
53:37 Message for future generations