

Thomas Snead Jr. Video Log

00:08 Introduction
00:35 Biographical info and family history
01:36 Joining the Army and how JROTC helped 02:35 Qualifying for Army Security Agency
03:01 "I asked what's ASA, he said 'I can't tell you.'"
04:20 First assignment in the ASA
04:46 Courier Duty in Korea
05:10 Second assignment in Germany
05:33 Kangwa-Do
06:06 North Korean build up after the Gulf of Tonkin Incident
06:23 Day to day life
06:59 Why the Army
07:38 Basic Training
09:08 Military Police training
09:37 One of the last troop ships to Korea
10:17 No special ASA training
10:43 The Korean Countryside and People
11:16 Lived in a Quonset hut
11:39 Climbing the mountain in the winter
11:59 Bad Aibling, Germany, rank of Spec 4
12:29 Doing a more military police type job
12:40 Junior ROTC training came into play
13:42 Taking classes in Germany
14:06 Off base traffic accident investigations
14:15 Promoted to Sergeant
14:28 Definitely loved Germany
14:49 Working with Germany Police
15:00 Bill Nolan, Very Good Friend
15:36 Beer fests and problems
16:55 Other places traveled too
17:16 Favorite place to go
17:42 Free time
18:26 Friends and fellow service men
18:37 Friends at the reunion and friends still in contact with 19:22 Overseas for most of career
20:07 Germany was the last duty station
20:19 Coming home was rough
21:25 Became an Insurance adjuster
22:13 Tragic loss leads to a new career and starting a business
23:46 Veterans Organizations
24:25 Stories that jump out
25:04 Life lessons from the Army
26:21 Other positive effects of service
27:06 Reasons for service
27:42 Glad for the opportunity to share
28:20 3% of soldiers qualify for ASA
28:57 Problems with Draftees
29:30 If not for Vietnam...
30:04 Message for future generations
31:01 Conclusion