SECTION II - PROGRAM DATA

7. OUTLINE OF PROPOSED ACTIVITIES
Berglihof School, founded in 1947 and since then run as a boarding school, will be moved into the neighborhood of Dayton, where it will be chiefly a country day school for children and young people of better than normal endowment and capable of absorbing a very thorough college preparatory education covering twelve years. The school proposes to lay a good foundation in mathematics and science. It will stress languages and history, and for this particular reason the school will need a few teachers from abroad who, mastering several languages, can help set the pace in the daily use of languages. The belief is that, for the level of preparatory school, it is enough to teach each pupil English, Latin, one Romance and one Germanic tongue. Later he can study Slavic and Asiatic languages if he so desires.

8. ARRANGEMENTS FOR SUPERVISION AND DIRECTION
In all likelihood these foreign teachers will be single and live on the school grounds. Any married teachers would have to come in under regular immigration quotas. Thus the visitors under this program would have almost constant supervision and directive help from the Directors of the school, Dr. and Mrs. Marti, and from American teachers among whom the school hopes to have retired college professors.

9. PURPOSE OR OBJECTIVE
The chief purpose, thorough instruction in foreign languages, has been stated under 7. above. Another purpose is to give foreign teachers an opportunity to work temporarily in the United States and thus to take home first hand observations on the liberality and efficiency of this country.

10. ROLE OF OTHER ORGANIZATIONS ASSOCIATED WITH PROGRAM (If any)
The school will be a non-profit corporation under the laws of Ohio. It has the backing of substantial people in Dayton.
