II. The minutes of the June 5, 1995, meeting were approved as written.

III. Report of the President: Harley Flack reporting:

President Flack welcomed and introduced the new Provost, Dr. John Fleischauer and Dr. Donald Peters, new Vice President for Student Affairs. President Flack indicated that the Student Affairs Vice President would now be reporting directly to the President.

President Flack announced that on Wednesday, October 4 from 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m. in the multipurpose room there would be a special meeting of the faculty to discuss a number of issues including miscommunications and misinformation about a number of the searches that were recently concluded, including salaries, benefits and any other questions. If there are lingering concerns about issues of concern to the faculty, President Flack proposed that these open forums continue on a monthly basis. He also announced that on Wednesday, October 4 from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. there would be an open forum for classified and unclassified staff, where similar concerns would be addressed.

President Flack spoke briefly of the goals for the 1996 fiscal year. They included:

1. Realign the Wright State University budget for the 1997 fiscal year.
2. Continue to make significant progress in the visioning and strategic planning processes that are underway at WSU. One hundred twenty people attended a strategic planning council workshop on September 26, 1995 and a visioning workshop is scheduled for October 11 at 8:30 a.m. in the multipurpose room.
3. Continue the student-centered agenda, including improving student retention graduation rates, as well as other student-centered initiatives.
4. Continue the diversity initiatives with regard to diversifying the student body at WSU and diversifying the faculty/staff profiles.
5. Improve the WSU image by advancing student, faculty and staff accomplishments.
6. Continue to pursue fund raising to support critical WSU initiatives, particularly in the private sector.
7. Continue collaborative agenda with such activities as the DAGSI (Dayton Area Graduate Studies Institute), as well as the coalition that has been developed with the four local universities (University of Dayton, Sinclair Community College, Central State University and Wright State University).

IV. Report of the Steering Committee: Donna Schlagheck reporting:

1. The Steering Committee met on September 18 at 3:15 p.m. The next meeting will be October 17 at 4:00 p.m. The issue of the scheduling of Academic Council meetings with regard to possible conflicts during the final exam week (week of November 27) and looking farther out toward winter and spring scheduling will be discussed at that time.

2. The agenda for the Steering Committee included completing the University Committee assignment roster.

3. Dr. Manley Perkel agreed to chair a working group from the Governance Committee to work on the amendments and the construction of that language through the Academic Council.

4. Distribution of Retirees Association Announcement (Attachment A) and remarks re same from Liz Harden, President of the Retirees Association.

V. Reports of the Standing Committees
A. Buildings and Grounds Utilization & Planning:
   No report.

B. Curriculum and Academic Policy: Charles Funderburk reporting:
   A subcommittee has made recommendations regarding academic unit entrance requirements. Those recommendations will be considered by the committee and will be circulated to all the college curriculum committees. The University Curriculum Committee will begin meeting twice a month, starting next week.
   Dr. Sirkin from last year's committee attended the meeting to address any questions regarding Proposed Changes To General Education Requirements (Old Business, Item F).

C. Faculty Affairs: Rudy Fichtenbaum reporting:
   The Faculty Affairs Committee met for the first time on September 28. Items discussed were:
   1. Tenure Removal Committee appointed.
   2. Due Process Committee appointed for approval at November meeting.
   3. Proposal from College of Nursing and Health to create two new positions at WSU (clinical instructor and clinical assistant professor) is on the agenda for the next meeting.
   4. Will discuss who is eligible to serve on Promotion and Tenure Committee.
   5. Develop a mechanism to replace council members who can no longer serve but do not resign. Will also discuss whether or not there should be some kind of attendance requirement at council meetings.
   6. Two AAUP Proposals:
      (a) To have a one-year extension of the probationary period for tenure, if a person takes a pregnancy leave.
      (b) To have a one-year extension of the probationary period for inadequate scholarship.
   7. Review and revise Constitution and Bylaws regarding tenure removal process.
   The next meeting will be October 19 at 2:00 p.m.
